No. 79.—OCTOBER TERM, 1970

Recirculated MAR 5 1971

Stella Connell, Appellant, } On Appeal From the United
v. } States District Court for James M. Higginbotham } the Middle District of et al. } Florida.

[March —, 1971]

PER CURIAM.

This is an appeal from an action commenced in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida challenging the constitutionality of §§ 876.05-876.10 of Fla. Stat. Ann., and the various loyalty oaths upon which appellant's employment as a school teacher was conditioned. The three-judge U. S. District Court declared three of the five clauses contained in the oaths to be unconstitutional,* and enjoined the State from conditioning employment on the taking of an oath including the language declared unconstitutional. The appeal is from that portion of the District Court decision which upheld the remaining two clauses in the oath: I do hereby solemnly swear or affirm (1) "that I will support the Constitution of the United States and of the State of Florida"; and (2) "that I do not believe in the overthrow of the government of the United States or of the State of Florida by force or violence."
