Senate Vice Chairperson Freddie Alvarado called the meeting to order.

Roll Call

Senate Secretary Susan Kalter called the roll and declared a quorum.

Approval of Minutes of December 11, 2013

Motion XLV-43: To approve the minutes. The motion was unanimously approved.

Presentation: International Strategic Plan (Rita Bailey, Assistant Provost/Academic Affairs Committee)

Rita Bailey, Assistant Provost: Internationalization is supported in Educating Illinois. It is increasingly important as we prepare our students to work in a global society. The committee working on the plan split into seven subcommittees. We had a short and long-term programs and opportunities committee and a committee that evaluated the campus and community climate for international scholars, researchers and students. We had a committee that looked directly at incoming and outgoing student processes to see if we are making the processes for students and faculty to come in and go out of this university less cumbersome. The fourth committee looked at how shall we impact the curriculum and campus life—what is the current status of the internationalization within the current curriculum and in our campus life. A committee looked at program development, guidelines, processes and support. Another committee looked at communications and marketing and one that looked at assessment.

The plan is very foundational. International activities have grown up secondary to other programs, so the international office was developed in 1978 to help support those programs. The first year, we just want to streamline processes. We want to make it as easy as possible for students to come to this university and for our students, faculty and staff to do international things. We want to provide excellent support to students, faculty, staff and visitors.

Years three, four and five continue to anticipate and meet the kinds of needs that we will have as internationalization grows on campus. We will have ongoing assessment.

A way for us to support incoming and outgoing students and scholars is if we could work on increasing flexibility so that more of our students can study abroad and not have that increase their time to degree. We need to optimize our capacity in high-interest programs if we want to attract more international students. We need to continue to provide inclusive and supportive classrooms for a wide variety of students. The Office of International Studies and Programs is here to support and help to grow our international programs.

I am here to ask for your endorsement of the plan.

Senator Smudde: Why doesn't the strategic plan include the word "studies" in it?

Dr. Bailey: It is the plan for the campus rather than just for the international studies unit. It was named to reflect a broader plan.

Senator Horst: Did your committee look at how to help the education majors go abroad.

Dr. Bailey: Yes, they came back with a lot of recommendations. One of the recommendations was to work with departments that have interest in developing those things and to show them what other units and departments have done. Some have been successful with summer or even three-week programs.

Motion XLV-44: By Senator Kalter, seconded by Senator Stewart, to endorse the International Strategic Plan.

Senator Eckrich: Is there a budget associated with the work?

Dr. Bailey: We are a very decentralized campus. Budgets go out to all of the different colleges and the deans chose priorities, so it depends on the area that you are working in what the budget for international activities is. International Studies Programs has our own budget and we try to support things when we can.

The motion to endorse the plan was unanimously approved.

Student Body President's Remarks

Senator Alvarado: At the last SGA meeting, we passed a recommendation for a 2% overall fee increase. February 28 between 12:00 and 3:00 p.m., we will be hosting a campus-wide State Your Idea Campaign. I had a meeting with Health Promotion and Wellness about the smoking ban. We are limited to permanent signage on the quad. However, we do have a lot of posters that we will be placing on the quad as well as passing out flyers when the temperature increases. I also spoke with Health Promotion and Wellness about bicycle and pedestrian safety. They are going to look more into that.

Senator Fazel: I would like for you not to forget the no smoking between the south side of the College of Business and the parking garage. There is no signage.

Senator Alvarado: That was brought up too. That was one for which we received feedback as far as high traffic areas. We are trying to find ways to address that as well as the Office of Health Promotion and Wellness.

Administrators' Remarks:

President Tim Flanagan (Written Remarks Submitted by President Flanagan):

Vice President of Student Affairs Larry Dietz (Written Remarks Submitted by VP Dietz):

I have two items I would like to report to the Senate members for their information.

First, after 25 years with Illinois State University, the last 14 as the Director of University Housing Services, Maureen Blair has announced her plans to retire at the end of May. Senior Associate Vice President Brent Paterson and I concur that Maureen has been a stellar director in providing leadership to a large and complex department. Among her many accomplishments, Maureen led the department through the planning and implementing of the long range plan to renovate the residence halls and dining centers, was instrumental in the decision to embark on the public/private partnership resulting in a new Cardinal Court, led the initiative to re-focus the department to serve primarily freshmen and sophomores given the increase in the numbers of those students and the decreased capacity; and has assumed a leadership role in the decommissioning of South Towers. Perhaps her most notable achievement, however, has been serving as a role model for her staff and students. We appreciate her service and will miss her greatly but wish her the very best in her retirement.

A search committee has been formed and will be chaired by Jonathan Rosenthal. I will be working with Dr. Paterson and the committee in the coming weeks with the goal of having a new director in place by July 1. Please join me in thanking Maureen for her many years of dedicated service and wish her well in her retirement.

Second, I have recently received the Fall 2013 Fraternity and Sorority Report. The report provides data regarding the number of members in each fraternity and sorority individually and collectively, grade point averages of the various groups, service hours reported, and financial contributions to charities. Highlights include:

- 1) members of fraternities and sororities represent 10.5% of the undergraduate student population with 1,850 members;
- 2) there are 33 fraternities and sororities on campus with 11 sororities, 11 fraternities, 4 organizations with the National Pan Hellenic Council, and 4 organizations representing Multicultural Greek Council;
- 3) the all-Greek cumulative grade point average is 3.0;
- 4) fraternities and sororities provided nearly 6,100 hours of service work during the fall semester; and,
- 5) they contributed nearly $34,000 to various charities.

The entire report is available by contacting Dr. Jan Paterson, Dean of Students.

Committee Reports:

Academic Affairs Committee

Senator Stewart: Dane Ward, the new dean of the library, was our guest. He came to talk to us about changes in the Blue Book description of the Library Committee. We had the beginning of a discussion on proposed changes to Global Studies graduation requirements.

Administrative Affairs and Budget Committee (Written Report Submitted by Senator Smudde):

The AABC met February 5 and February 19, and we had quorum at both meetings. At the Feb. 5 meeting we discussed the deans' survey and the revisions to it that the provost obtained from the college deans. We also discussed next steps for developing the committee's recommendations about the AIF. And we discussed the process for the president's survey as we awaited the Executive Committee's guidance on next steps. At the Feb. 19 meeting we focused on committee comments and questions about the AIF as the starting point for writing the committee's recommendations for the AIF. We also covered the planned launch for the deans' survey before the next Academic Senate meeting and the Executive Committee's guidance about the president's survey. The committee tasks list will be updated as requested as in-process things are completed.

Faculty Affairs Committee (Written Report Submitted by Senator Horst):

The Faculty Affairs Committee met on January 22nd and February 19th. During the January 22nd meeting, we reviewed the Ombudsperson Council Report and discussed the Ombudsperson Policy with two of the three members of the University Ombudsperson Council – Maria Pao and Al Azinger. On February 19th, we began discussions on the draft of the policy on re-assignment, suspension, and dismissal.

Planning and Finance Committee

Senator Rich: We have had two meetings this year to discuss the administrative responses to the Institutional Priorities Report from last year. We are now in the process of revising our document for this year.

Rules Committee

Senator Bushell: We've met twice so far this year. There are two alcohol policies that we have been looking at in light of Hancock Stadium and Cardinal Court coming on line. The alcohol policies have been actively reviewed by the President's Office and the alcohol taskforce. We are finding that a few more details are under consideration. We are essentially tabling those for now so we can check on more details as they come about. We have been asked to review the Policy on Policies and try to figure out appropriate language to clarify, streamline and formalize the review process for university policies. We have approximately 380 university policies and the lore is that they are reviewed every five years, which is not necessarily the case. We are working on that to have an appropriate structure and more accountability.

The policies and procedures can be found on the web at: <http://policy.illinoisstate.edu/>.

Advisory Item:

02.04.14.01 Report from the Faculty Ombuds Council (Faculty Affairs Committee)

Senator Horst: The Faculty Affairs Committee is charged with reviewing the annual Ombudsperson Report. We had two of the ombudspersons visit our committee, Al Azinger and Maria Pao. They have submitted this report for your consideration.

Senator Crowley: I think the Senate would be pleased to hear the aim of your efforts.

Maria Pao: We provide an impartial forum for people to work out their differences in a way that is non-confrontational.

Al Azinger: You might think of the term mediator. Sometimes it's with other faculty; sometimes it's with administrators and chairs.

Senator Lessoff: What kind of recordkeeping regarding the individual cases do you do?

Dr. Azinger: We share information among ourselves. The recordkeeping is pretty limited because of confidentiality issues. We can tell you how many cases we have had. We can talk about some of the resolutions, but our records are fairly limited and locked up.

Senator Lessoff: If somebody runs into a problem and wants it recorded, how would you help them?

Dr. Azinger: We can explain their rights in terms of doing that because in almost all instances, the faculty member would have the right to write some kind of response and have it placed in their personnel file in HR. A lot of times we are able to explain some processes that will help them. We are not an advocate, but we can bring some information about how the university works to help them manage their issue.

Dr. Pao: Oftentimes, because we don't deal with formal investigations, appeals or grievances, those bodies like to see that the parties in good faith have tried to work out their differences in an informal way. We provide that outlet for them.

Senator Eckrich: Could you shed some light on the relationship between your work and the Academic Freedom Ethics and Grievance Committee and those other similar bodies?

Dr. Azinger: In many respects, there is very little interface because we are not there to serve as an advocate. Those bodies would like to see if there has been some kind of an informal effort that has been made to resolve the issue before it gets escalated to a formal grievance. In reality, we have no power; we can only advise.

One of the things you will see in the report is that there may need to be more awareness of the service that we offer.

Senator Horst: I would hope that their work is increasingly more visible and that it is advertised more because I think it is an excellent service.

Communications

Senator Fitzpatrick: I'm a trip leader for alternative spring break and we are still looking for a faculty advisor to accompany us to New Orleans, so if you are interested, send one of us an email because there are a couple of buses that still need faculty advisors.

Parking Issue:

Senator Kalter: Since we did not have administrator remarks, I promised former senator Jack Glascock that I would put his information on the record. He has brought this up before that he has been having trouble with parking in the south university garage. He sent me an email. We forwarded this to Dr. Layzell, who submitted it to Debra Smitley and she sent her response. If anyone else is having issues with parking, please let us know and we can get it to the right person.

Subject: Re: faculty-staff parking

To: "smkalte@ilstu.edu" <smkalte@ilstu.edu>

Hi Susan. After we corresponded before, things seemed to improve -- we were switched to a little bigger lot next to the South University Garage. However this semester things seemed to have regressed. Unless I come in early in the mornings, or late afternoon I cannot find a place to park in any of faculty parking lots. For example, yesterday I came in at 9:30 am and couldn't find a place to park in the faculty lots. I then drove over to one of the nearby commuter-faculty lots where there were commuters, idling in their cars just waiting for a space to open up. I think the problem is that now all the lots on the south side of campus, that used to be commuter-faculty lots, have been converted to "S-4" lots, which I think means they are being leased to private developers for parking for student residents of the nearby newly built apartment complexes. I know I'm sounding like a broken record, but it just seems like if you pay for parking, you should be able to find a place to park.

Thanks again for your attention. Jg

Quoting "Smitley, Debra" <dsmitle@ilstu.edu>:

Susan:

This is sent in response to the note you sent to Dan Layzell regarding parking availability concerns in the south campus area. Parking and Transportation is planning to make some modifications to the surface parking area of the South University Garage that will open up an additional 24 parking spaces. This will be done once snow is removed, and the work to change the markings on the pavement can be done this spring. Snow build-up has been an issue in this area and elsewhere, and that has affected the number of spaces available as well.

The initial review of utilization statistics for the South Campus Garage show higher utilization this spring than in fall 2013 or spring 2013. As a consequence, Parking and Transportation is considering what other options are possible to make in the area to create additional parking spaces available.

Please let me know if you have any questions or need additional information.
