*Then fill a fair and honest cup
And bear it straight to me,
The goblet hallows all it holds,
Whate'er the liquid be.
And may the cherubs on its face
Protect me from the sin
That dooms one to those dreadful words,
My dear, where have you been?*

—O. W. HOLMES.

Toasts

“Going On” Dr. John W. Cook '65
President Northern Illinois State Normal

Strange that a harp of thousand strings
Should keep in tune so long.
—Watts.

“Then and Now” Hon. Joseph Carter '70
A man of mark to know next time you saw.
—Browning.

“Dissolving Views” J. Dickey Templeton '73
They never taste who always drink,
They always talk who never think.
—Prior.

“Our Fellow Worker” J. Rose Colby
I have ever thought
Nature doth nothing so great for great men
As when she is pleased to make them lords of truth.
—Webster.

“Past Memories and Men Present” Frank E. Richey '72

“Other Foundations” Will S. Gray '10
Banish all compliments but single truth.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Henry McCormick

Born 1837, County Mayo, Ireland.

Graduated Illinois State Normal University 1868.

Professor of History and Geography 1869-1912.

Vice-President 1891-1912.

*I remember, I remember
How my childhood flitted by,
The mirth of its December
And the warmth of its July.*

—PRAED.

As he appeared at graduation

*Emblem and legend may fade from the portal,
Keystone may crumble and pillar may fall,
These were the builders whose work is immortal
Crowned with the dome that is over us all.*

—O. W. HOLMES.
