Of this number only 2 women were rejected, 3 men and 12 women were admitted upon high school or college diplomas, 8 men were appointed by county superintendents, 1 was admitted upon a first grade certificate, 3 men and 2 women came from the preparatory department, and 1 man and 6 women were admitted upon examination.

The Senior Class—This class is more than 50 per cent larger than any other in the history of the school. The number is 85. The faculty recommend the graduation of the following persons from the several courses herewith specified.

THE ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

All friends of the Normal School will appreciate the consideration shown us by the General Assembly. Through the kindness of Senator Chapman, chairman of the Senate committee on appropriations, and of Representative Curtis, chairman of the House committee on appropriations, I was enabled to attend to all my legislative duties by a single visit to Springfield. This was indeed a very great convenience and was correspondingly appreciated. Very little change was made in the bills submitted to their consideration. Au addition of $5,000 to the current expense account was asked for. This was substantially granted, a reduction of a few hundred dollars being made in order that the appropriation, exclusive of the half interest on the college and seminary fund should agree with that granted to other institutions.

The exact amount available for ordinary expenses is $39,493.56. The income from other sources will probably reach $5,000, hence the institution will be in far better shape in this particular than ever before. A bill was prepared asking for an appropriation of $5,390 for certain changes in the building and for necessary repairs. This was unanimously agreed to. Everything can now be put into excellent shape. The long delayed kindergarten and the instructor of music may at last be added to the equipment. Both were authorized by the Board some time ago, but the income of the institution would not warrant the expenditure, hence no action has been taken.

RESIGNATIONS.

With the end of the current year Dr. McMurry and Miss Potter will close their connection with this institution. I desire to make a part of this permanent record my appreciation of the superior character of their services. They have won the highest regard of their associates in the faculty and of the pupils who have been under their instruction.

Mr. Andrew H. Melville, who for the last three years has been principal of the Grammar department of the Practice School, will also leave us to enter upon a course of study in Columbia University. New York City. When it is remembered that this department of the Practice School has been kept well filled, notwithstanding the fact that a tuition charge of $25 a year is made and, that some parents have some considerable sensitiveness on the subject of pupil teaching, I think that Mr. Melville needs no commendations from my pen. It is enough to say that he has been a great blessing to the boys and girls under his charge.

I submit herewith

THE LIBRARIAN'S REPORT.

Circulation of books Christmas vacation and winter term, 8,473 volumes. Circulation spring vacation and spring term, 6,210 volumes. Entire circulation for the year since the close of school in June, 1898, 25,095 volumes. No record is kept of the use of books in the room. Number of books purchased since January 1, 1899, 11 volumes.

I am making a point of teaching the students how to work among the books in the library, turning from one to another good reference book for information on different parts of their subject. Their own idea is usually that they must read in the quiet of their own rooms, even if they have to take home an inferior book. The best work of this kind is accomplished on Saturday mornings. We can accomplish still more when the room is made quieter with strips of matting and we have more table room.

The library talks that were given during the winter term evidently interested the students and increased their use of the library. Still more could be accomplished if they all had time for a few practical lessons in the library room.

The card catalogue is very imperfect and greatly in need of attention. I have done my best to push it with the assistance of the clerk but the time of each was so crowded with other duties that we were able to make but little progress. The cataloguing is slow, careful work and can only be done to advantage when the cataloguer is free from interruption. In libraries where a good catalogue is made and kept up to date, either there is sufficiently competent assistance for the librarian to devote certain hours of the day exclusively to the cataloguing or there is a cataloguer, or an arrangement is made with extra assistance for a comparatively short time to tring the catalogue up to date. In the present case I think it would be advisable for me to spend a large part of the summer vacation in improving the catalogue. In so doing I should need the help of a competent typewriter and a capable general assistant. There is always some work to be done in the summer such as attending to the binding and this can be done at the same time. The convenience that a good card catalogue will be to the library and the propriety of having it in proper shape make it, in my opinion, well worth the time and expense that it would require.

LATER HISTORY OF THE NORMAL SCHOOL.

Now that the time has come when I am to withdraw from a school in which my life has been spent, substantially, I think that I may indulge in something of retrospection. I came to the Normal School in September, 1862, graduating in course, in 1865. I spent a year as principal of graded schools in the western part of the State. Returning by invitation of President Edwards I became principal of the Grammar Department of the Model School in 1866. Two years later I was appointed to do the work of Prof. Hewett while he spent a year in travel. In 1869 I was appointed to the chair of Elocution and Reading. In 1876 I succeeded Miss Harriet M. Case in the department of Mathematics and added thereto the work in physics. In that department I continued until my election to the presidency in 1890. I have thus had a most intimate connection with the institution for 37 years.

When I began here in 1890, we had no regular librarian and our reference library was in the end of a narrow hall on the second floor. We had a small circulating library which was open half an hour on Friday afternoons. I suggested the immediate employment of a librarian and the fitting up of this room for a library. As many of you remember, this was done and we occupied it very happily for one year. On the erection of the Practice School building we were enabled to remove to the more commodious quarters on the north side of the main building. We now have a beautiful room, giving us 3,600 square feet for library purposes.

The Practice School, at the time of which I speak, was in this building. There were two critic teachers employed. Classes of children were to be found everywhere, under the stairs, in the basement, in the halls in every available place. Through the generosity of the General Assembly the long desired Practice School became a reality in 1891. Its cost fully completed was about $24,000. The relief which this new building afforded to the institution was very great. We were thus enabled to provide something like suitable quarters for our practice school.

In 1895 we went into the Legislature for a second building. It would be idle now to narrate the story of our alternating hopes and fears. It is enough to say that we secured an appropriation of $40,000 and shortly after began the erection of the new building. A supplementary appropriation of $16,000 in 1897 enabled us to complete the structure, thus giving us a beautiful gymnasium with its baths and dressing rooms, admirable science rooms, and the beautiful library hall. I have said that the building was completed. This is not quite true, there are a few features yet to be finished; notably the bowling alley, and possibly the swimming pool.

In 1890 our annual appropriation for current expenses was $27,500; in 1895 we succeeded in getting this increased to $35,000. At the last session of the General Assembly we were successful in getting it still further increased, so that it is now $39,500 in round numbers.

In addition to this we have expended on the inside of the main building about $6,500, getting our funds from the sale of lands in Jackson county. We have also expended $7,000 in the reconstruction of our heating plant. The aggregate appropriations outside of our provision for current expenses have reached about $90,000 in the last nine years, or an average of about $10,000 a a year.

The course of study has been changed almost as materially as the physical plant. The change has been along the lines of professional work and has been the result of an attempt to make this school conform to modern conditions as well as we are able to do. We have specially labored, however, to maintain the characteristic spirit of this school, given it by its founders and by the men who were employed here in the earlier years of its organization. It has been its good or ill fortune to retain lits teachers for very long periods of time, hence the fundamental spirit has not changed radically.

I can not forbear making note of the fact that the board of education has served quite as continuously as the faculty. One is now a member of that body who was here when I entered the school in 1862. Your honored president was appointed in February, 1861, and, as you know, has served continuously since, this being the end of his thirty-eighth year. The name of Mr. Gastman appears first in the catalogue of 1870-71. He has thus been a member of the board for twenty-eight years. Mr. Walker succeeded Mr. Wells, who had been a member for many years, in 1883. He thus has a record of sixteen years. Mr. Sandham's first appointment dates from 1885. With the exception of four years he has been a member continuously from that time. Mr. Harrington's name appears first in 1887. He. like Mr. Sandham, has had an interruption of four years since then. Mrs. Young was appointed in 1889, and it was at this time also that our excellent treasurer, Mr. F. D. Marquis, entered upon his duties. Mr. Brady became a member in 1891. This is the list of those of longest service.

I must not lengthen this report, however, by further historical references. In closing, permit me to return my most sincere thanks to the board for the uniform kindness with which I have been treated. When you made me president in 1890 you told me that I should have my way in all essential particulars. You have kept your word and I wish to thank you most sincerely for it. No one could be more delightfully conditioned than I have been. This is not the place to explain why I go away. I may say, however, that there are considerations which seem to indicate that the duty is more imperative to go than to stay. May heaven's blessing rest upon this school.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JOHN W. COOK.

Mrs. Young introduced the following resolution, and moved its adoption:

Whereas, John W. Cook, President of the Illinois State Normal University, has decided to sever his official connection with this institution in order to enter upon the complex duties attendant upon opening a new State normal school, and

Whereas, As pupil, professor, and president, he has devoted his powers to the advancement of his alma mater to a high rank among the normal schools of this country, therefore, be it

Resolved, That this board, realizing the immense intellectual and moral force that will be withdrawn from the school under its care, takes this occasion to express not only its recognition of the strong personal and professional influence that is going from the Illinois State Normal University with the departure of President Cook, but also its deep regret for that loss; and to wish him the same degree of success in the future that he has always achieved in the past.

And the resolution was unanimously adopted.

The treasurer, Mr. F. D. Marquis, presented the following report, which was referred to the Auditing and Finance Committee:

To the Honorable Board of Education of the State of Illinois:

MR. President and Members of the Board:—My last report, as your treasurer included Dec. 5, 1898, and showed a balance on hand of $1,819.90. The receipts have since amounted to $22,605.01, $4,714.86 being from tuition account; $390.15 from rent of land, and $17,500 from the State Treasurer.

The disbursement has amounted to $22,566.14, as shown by 31 vouchers, which are returned herewith, together with a statement of account in detail. The balance at this time is $1,858.77.

To the Board of Education of the State of Illinois:

Your Committee on Teachers and Salaries have learned with deep regret of the determination of President Cook to resign his position with us, to accept a similar position in the Northern Illinois Normal School at De Kalb.

No argument by the members of this committee, or by the friends of the school, has been successful in dissuading him from his purpose. After as thorough an investigation as we have been able to make and on due consideration, we have concluded to present the name of Prof. Arnold Tompkins, Ph. D., Professor of Pedagogy in the University of Illinois, at Champaign, for the position.

Prof. Tompkins is a graduate of the Indiana State Normal School and DePauw University. As Superintendent of the schools of Franklin, Ind., his ability to organize and conduct a system of schools was first fully demonstrated. He was afterward selected as the head of the Normal Department of the DePauw University. He spent two years in post graduate work on the philosophy of education in the University of Chicago, at the same time lecturing on educational subjects. He has been a prominent institute worker in this and adjoining states.

He is author of several books on language and education. "The Philosophy of Teaching" and "The Philosophy of School Management" are considered among the best books on those subjects.

His great power consists in his ability to organize his thought on any subject which he desires to present to others. He has ability to bring things to pass and get results.

We also have the resignation of Dr. Charles A. McMurry as teacher in the Practice School. We are glad to present the name of John J. Wilkinson as his successor.

Mr. Wilkinson is a graduate of this school and has taught in the public schools of this State and spent five years in Germany. He is now teaching in the training department of the Patterson Training School.

We have received the resignation of Miss Mary R. Potter, as assistant teacher of language. We recommend it be accepted.

We have also received the resignation of Andrew H. Melville as principal of grammar school. We recommend the appointment of Frank S. Bogardus for that position with a salary of $800.

We recommend the salary of Miss Annie A. Stanley be increased from $900 to $1,000, and that of Ange V. Milner be increased from $900 to $1,000, and Mr. Elmer E. Cavins be increased from $750 to $850, as in accord with our plan of appointment of said teachers.

We believe the time has come to appoint a teacher of music. We therefore present the name of Mrs. Ida L. Gool for that position.

We have thought best not to raise other salaries at this time.

P. R. WALKER, Ella F. Young.
