Homecoming Tea

Autumn decorations adorned the refreshment table at the Homecoming Tea that was held on Saturday, October 21 in Room 19 at 10:00 a.m.. The tea was for members as well as alumni of ABA, and it was very well-attended.

First Place To ABA

Our club was awarded first place for the walking float entry to the Homecoming Parade which was held on Oct. 21, at 9:00 a.m.. For those who did not attend because of inclement weather, the float consisted of campaign posters of Calvin Coolidge for President. Slogans such as "Keep Cool With Coolidge," "Calvin Coolidge In 1924," and "Calvin Coolidge" were constructed, as well as campaign hats and huge campaign buttons. To make the entry complete a ballot box was included. The float committee did a fine job-congrats to all who helped!

What's new?

Mr. John Bradbury, former ISU Library Science Instructor, is now the head of the Peoria Library System. We wish him the best of luck on his new job, and we hope that he will come back to visit and to share some of his experiences with us.....

Library Courses 203 and 204, Library Materials For Youth I and II, have been changed as of this year. Miss Gowdy is teaching a course in Media For Young Adults and Dr. Ozolins is instructing a course in Building and Maintaining a Library Collection. These two courses contain material that was previously covered in 203 and 204.

Milner Library has started a paperback checkout of which some of you may not be aware. Here is the procedure for checking them out:

1. Selection is made from the display racks in the quadrangle of the lobby. Two books may be checked out for a two week period.
2. Take your selections to the library attendant at the near-by Exit Control Point.
3. The student fills out the single line on the charge-out sheet (last name, social security, and title.)
4. Attendant will stamp the due date(2 weeks later) on the charge-out sheet and also on the title page of the book(which is already stamped ISU-Library due in two weeks.) There are no other cards, pockets, or slips.
5. Books are to be returned to the same counter. Attendant will cross out the line on the charge-out sheet for that book and will cross out the date on the title page.
6. They are then placed back on the racks.
7. Anyone having personal copies of paperbacks that are no longer needed are encouraged to bring them so that they can be shared with others through this project.

To desire to have many books and never use them, is like a child that will have a candle burning by him all the while he is asleep.
