What's New With Whom?

Over semester break, Miss Harper and Dr. Ozolins attended the American Library Association's mid-winter convention. The convention, which was held in Washington D.C. consisted of work sessions, committee meetings and a business meeting.

The first week of February Miss Wilford assisted with a North Central Evaluation at Main East High School.

Talise Swickard, Vice-President of ABA, is running for President in the National Organization. Good luck to you, Talise...

Just News!

Seventeen students were initiated into ABA at the last meeting, which was held on Feb. 5. They all looked very interested in Alpha Beta Alpha and hope that they will enjoy being members of the organization.

The Sears Book Exchange, which was held early in February, was a big success. Thanks to all who helped to make it possible. Due to the excellent turn-out, it will be continued next semester.

The service project this year is going to the Americana Nursing Home and reading to the people there. The woman in charge of activities at Americana said that the people staying there would really appreciate it, as many of them cannot see well enough to read. Contact Bonnie Howell as to the times you can go.

The Executive Meeting was held on Feb. 26 at 7:00p.m.. Business included plans for the Founder's Day Banquet on May 20, discussion of the students which will be eligible for officers for next year, and the field trip to be taken after Easter Break..

DON'T YOU JUST HATE.....

slow clocks
missing pages
records that hiss
used chewing gum
shelf reading
missing cards

DON'T YOU JUST LOVE IT WHEN YOU FIND.....

the Saturday Review is stocked back until January 14, 1961 and you need January 7th.

that ~~was~~ 27 books in the library listed under SEX are checked out and the only ones left are two by Ann Landers and one on the sex life of the east African Tzetze.

a book that you needed for a report that was due a month ago.
