Welcome back! Another year has started and already activities are well underway. Many events are being planned, so make a special effort to assist in anyway that you can. A special welcome goes to the new faculty in the Library Science area, Mr. Ruben Marshall and Mr. Forrest Wisely. Best Wishes for the coming year!

Homecoming

The theme for this year's Homecoming is "Booze, Blues, or Whatever you Choose!" ABA has considered entering a walking float. If you have any suggestions, please contact one of the officers.

Immediately following the Homecoming parade on October 20th., ABA will host its' annual Homecoming Tea. This is a chance for all current members and alumni to gather in an informal atmosphere for coffee and doughnuts. Please plan to attend.

Past Events

On September 9th., ABA hosted a picnic on South Campus. It was the first meeting of the year. For those who attended, they had a great time not only enjoying the food, but also seeing those friends missed over the summer months.

The next evening, September 10th., ABA journeyed to the Pantagraph Library. One of the most interesting features was the morgue.

Newsy Notes

Word was received that Miss Anderson is now one of the "Jet Set." She is currently traveling in Colorado. Maybe you might be able to catch her on the slopes!

If you are still looking for Miss Hartford--keep on trying. But--you might want to stop and talk to Mrs. Martenson. They're one in the same! Congratulations Miss Hart...oops, Mrs. Martenson!!

The Wones Scholarship this year will be presented in November instead of this month. Col. Wones was unable to attend this month's meeting.

Dr. Ozolins has accepted the position of Librarian and Dean of Instruction at Gustavus Adolphus College in Minnesota. He was here in Bloomington this past weekend to finish moving his family to their Minnesota home. To him we bid farewell and offer our Best Wishes.

Miss Wilford has been appointed to a new national committee for the American Association of School Librarians. Congratulations Miss Wilford!!
