DID YOU KNOW . . . .

The first American Novel published in America was The Power of Sympathy or the Triumph of Nature Founded in Truth (Whew! What a Handle!) It was dedicated to young ladies of America, and was printed in Boston by Isaih Thomas Co. in 1789. It was a book about seduction and the authorship was attributed to Mrs. Sarah Wentworth Apthorp Morton (Boston) and William Hill Brown.

DID YOU KNOW . . . .

The first Woman President of ALA was Theresa Hubell West Elmendorf from the Buffalo Public Library. She held office from May 24, 1911 -- July 2, 1912.

If anyone can think of a good reference question you can be a contributor to the new section of Mu Scenes. Yes, You've guessed it! Send in a reference question that you think will stump everyone. Unfortunately, unlike the Vidette's Mystery Writer's, we can not provide gondolas to the one who thinks of a Stumper, but you will get recognition. Try to get a question into the Historian (Julie Harte) before the next meeting, so it can be printed in the Nov. issue of Mu Scenes. Maybe you can even outwit the reference teachers!

Well, that's it for this month --- See you in November!!!

Note-----

This month's Stumper is: HOW MANY SYLLABLES IN THE LONGEST WORD OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE???
