Newsletter

In case anyone hasn't noticed, Newsletter is a boring title for this stimulating paper. However, we are stumped for a title and at this time would like to announce our first contest - naming the newsletter. Put all suggestions in the envelope on the door to 177 (all contributions go there). Prizes will be announced later. The title will be chosen by our learned editorial board.

Important dates:

October 2	Denise Weigand - will be 21
October 4	Meeting - Debbie Samuelson
October 5	Mary Jane Garrett - will be 20
October 9	Homecoming
October 21	Executive Board
October 22	Janet Davison - will be a 22 neophyte
October 25	Audrey Doyle - will be 22
October 31	Halloween
November 1	Meeting - Dr. Dammers and the presentation of the Wones scholarship

Illnesses:

Colonel Wones was recently released from the hospital. Try sending him a get-well card.

Colonel Edward H. Wones

Normal, Illinois 61761

Don't forget Miss Welch. She's still in Mennonite Hospital.

Miss Eleanor Welch

Student Teaching

Audrey Doyle and Ben Bailey are going out in the cold, cruel world. However, Ben won't get his news because he never told anyone what his new address will be. Pam Lorkus is in Peoria in the Urban Education program presently.

Contest

Lu is considering getting T-shirts; however, we need a catchy slogan for the front. Contributions should be put in the envelope in front of 177.

Flash

Does anyone recognize the brainy lady in the "Joe College" comic strip in the Vidette? Small hint: she's last year's Recording Secretary.

Melanie Hegwood has had to resign as publicity chairman. Any volunteers? We need someone equally as special to fill her shoes.

Fat Luebe recently received her Master's in Instructional Media. In a twinkling of an eye, she received a challenging job in the cosmopolitan capital of Illinois - St. Elmo.

Important

October 15 is the start of pre-registration, if the schedule booklet is out. Make an appointment with Miss Wilford. Actual pre-registration is the first week in November.

Sequence

Got the 200's blue's? Let us know where you are, so everyone can help each other. This is a good way to find guinea pigs for micros!

Kathy Ellis and Lynn Malanaphy are presently student teaching in local schools. Next time you see them, smile; they need it.

Trivia

Did you know that. . .

1. The penny post card is 103 years old?
2. The first library law was established in 1849?
3. Library of Congress was established in 1800 and it's catalog came out in 1802?
4. Tx is the secret ingrediant in Coke?

The big question of the month is: what are the seven virtues? (Hint: Faith, . . .)

Be sure to check the bulletin board for announcements. They will be in the envelope. The spiffy board is courtesy of Melanie Hegwood.

Congratulations

Dr. Forrest Wisely and his wife, Connie, are the proud parents of a new baby boy. Matthew Elliott Wisely weighs in at a pleasant 6 pounds and two ounces. If Dr. Wisely comes to class looking as if he hasn't had any sleep, have patience . . . he probably hasn't due to the 2 o'clock feedings. Once again, congrats are in order.
