Your News Release from Illinois State Normal University, Normal, Illinois

GENERAL NEWS -- MRS. G. M. HALL ..... TELEPHONE 3-8211 ..... SPORTS NEWS -- J. RUSSELL STEELE

For release starting Sunday, January 22, 1961

Normal, Ill.--Governor Otto F. Kerner will give the main address at Illinois State Normal University Saturday, February 18, when the 104th birthday of ISNU is observed.

The Founders' Day program will conclude with the luncheon at which Governor Kerner and President Robert G. Bone are to speak. It will be preceded by a symposium during the morning and showing of the new University film, "Teachers of Tomorrow."

"Responsible Citizenship and World Unity" is to be the topic for a panel moderated by Prof. Vernon Pohlmann of ISNU, and "Teaching Machines" the topic for a panel moderated by Prof. Lawrence M. Stolurow of the University of Illinois.

A coffee hour for all those attending the Founders' Day events will be held in the lobby of Westhoff Theatre, scene of the symposium. The luncheon at which Governor Kerner will talk and showing of the film are to be in the University Union.

Checks or money orders payable to Illinois State Normal University are to accompany requests for the luncheon tickets and be directed to the University Union. There will be no charge for the symposium.
