Message from the International President

Dear SIEC-ISBE Friends,

Welcome to the 151st edition of The Review. Our journal is a peer-reviewed publication for global business educators by global business educators. The journal is published annually. ISBE members provide in-depth research articles that can be helpful in the classroom or with administrative responsibilities. Each article is based upon research conducted by our members and adds to the body of knowledge in global business education. As in the past, a brochure for the upcoming conference will be included. Additionally, a call for nominations for the office of international president is included as required by our constitution.

I want to thank Eric Kisling, Ph.D., of the USA Chapter for taking on the task of editor for the past two years. He has offered guidance and support that will benefit the organization for years in the future. I also want to take a moment to thank our reviewers. We had multiple manuscripts submitted this year and required five reviewers. Thank you to Sue Trautwein, USA; Hely Westerhom, Finland; Leszek Preisner, Poland; Gregg Whyte, USA; and Judi Treganowan, Australia. Your expertise was beneficial in helping improve the quality of the accepted manuscripts and offering guidance for improvement to those authors whose work was not accepted this year.

Our international conference will be located in Basel, Switzerland. Basel is located in the northern part of Switzerland, just a short distance from France and Germany. The conference theme, Business Education: Stakeholders' Current and Future Requirements, is an exciting theme that is very appropriate as our organization celebrates 110 years of excellence in Business Education. I hope to see you at the 2011 conference and our future conferences as well. Future conferences are planned in the following locations:

2012—Denver, Colorado, USA

2013—Germany

2014—Finland

We are seeking proposals for conferences in 2015 and beyond.

With warmest SIEC-ISBE regards until we meet again,

Tamra S. Davis, Ph.D.

SIEC-ISBE International President
