CIVIL SERVICE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

~ Maureen Peel, Civil Service Council

Nominations are being accepted for the Civil Service Distinguished Service Award. Any University employee or student may submit a nomination. This award is the highest honor a Civil Service staff member can achieve at Illinois State University, and it is presented on Founder's Day in February.

Criteria for this award (job performance, campus/university involvement, and community service), as well as the application form, can be found on the Civil Service Council website. Recipients of this award will receive $1,000, a personal plaque, and have his/her name added to the Wall of Fame in the Bone Student Center.

Deadline for submission of applications is 4:30 p.m. December 12, 2012. Any questions regarding this award should be directed to Maureen Peel, mkpeel@ilstu.edu.

CHILDREN'S HOLIDAY PARTY REMINDER

~ Kathleen Webster, Civil Service Council

Don't forget to register for the annual Children's Holiday Party taking place on Sunday, December 9, from 2 to 4 p.m. at Horton Field House. Brought to you by the Civil Service Council, A/P Council and University Events, the party is open to the children and grandchildren of all Illinois State University faculty, staff, retirees and current students.

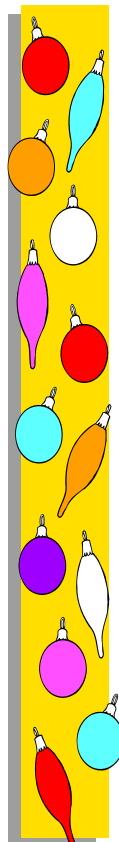

We MUST receive reservations by Monday, December 3, 2012:

Please register at: UniversityEvents.IllinoisState.edu/holiday or call (309) 438-8790. Use your ULID and password to log into the registration form. For questions, please contact University Events at universityevents@ilstu.edu. Illinois State University I.D. must be provided at the party and will be electronically swiped.

A Time For Giving

The Civil Service Council and the A/P Council are looking for individuals who would like to donate a few hours of their time helping with the Children's Party. If interested, please contact a civil service representative or email Kathleen Webster at kdwebst@ilstu.edu

The Civil Service Council, A/P Council and the University Events people are giving their time and talents to making this a great event. We are asking those attending to make a donation of a non-perishable food item. Donations will be delivered to the Center of Hope who has a great need for donations this year.

BECOME A HOLIDAY HELPER

Leadership and Service in the Dean of Students Office invites all faculty and staff to adopt a child for the Holiday Helper Party.

Participants “adopting” a child will purchase gifts based on the child’s top three wants and needs (valuing approximately $40) and return the items to Leadership and Service.

Holiday Helper parties are held to interact with children in the community and to distribute the gifts collected through Holiday Helper. Parties will be held on Saturday, Dec. 8, at four local community agencies in Bloomington/Normal: Boys and Girls Club, Catholic Charities, Western Avenue Community Center, and UNITY Community Center. One hundred volunteers are needed for the parties to help children with a variety of activities, such as games, sports, and arts and crafts.

Registration is currently being taken in the Leadership and Service office. Call 438-7346 for additional information. The deadline to adopt a child is Dec. 1.

Holiday Helper wrappers needed

Volunteers are also needed to assist with wrapping the gifts donated through Holiday Helper. Supplies will be provided. Wrapping takes place from 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 5, and Thursday, Dec. 6, in the Bone Student Center, Prairie Room. Sign up in the Leadership and Service office.

REDBIRD GIVING TREE RETURNS

The annual College of Fine Arts Redbird Giving Tree will be in the Center for Performing Arts foyer from Friday, Nov. 16 to Sunday, Dec. 16.

The festively decorated 25-foot evergreen will be the centerpiece of the foyer and will be lit on the evening of Sunday, Nov. 25. Donations of non-perishable food items will be collected for donation to the Midwest Food Bank. Donations may be left under the tree at any time.

Those planning on attending University events such as Music for the Holidays from Saturday, Dec. 1, to Monday, Dec. 3, or the Fall Dance Concert from Thursday, Dec. 6, to Saturday, Dec. 8, may place a donation under the tree on the way to the events.

For more information, contact the Center for Performing Arts Box Office at 438-2535.

BOOK SIGNING

Sue Rovens, author and Civil Service employee from Milner Library, will host a book signing on Saturday, Dec. 1 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the Coffee House & Deli on 114 E. Beaufort St., Normal.

Sue has authored “In A Corner, Darkly: Short Stories To Horrify, Shock and Disturb.” The book contains tales to entertain lovers of suspense and horror. University personnel will find several references in one of the stories that relate to our campus and community. “In A Corner, Darkly” is available online through Barnes and Noble.

Contact Sue with questions or comments at srovens@yahoo.com
