About the Ensemble:

The Redbird Ringers were re-instated in 2009 after nearly a 20-year hiatus. Comprised of 12 musicians, the ensemble rehearses once per week. If you are interested in ringing with us, please feel free to ask any of the board members. The ensemble is typically in need of 1-2 ringers per semester!

Redbird Ringers have participated in many events since its reinstatement in 2009. Performances have included shows at Relay for Life, Music for the Holidays, and our own concerts! The ensemble has also played host to the Bloomington-Normal Handbell Conference.

Since being reinstated, the ensemble has been fortunate enough to acquire a fifth octave of handbells, and other equipment such as tables, folders, pads, and covers. Money has been generously given by the Illinois State University RSO Program Board, The ISU School of Music, and by generous donors like you. Thank you!
