Liz Larson, Financial Aid

Searching for scholarships can be a daunting process. Online, it can be difficult to tell fact from fiction. Even internal scholarship searches here at ISU can be overwhelming. That's why the Financial Aid Office is getting into social media! We're trying to meet students and parents where they are to promote upcoming scholarship deadlines and share information to make the search and application process easier for students. Find us on Facebook at facebook.com/ISUScholarships and follow us on Twitter @ISUScholarships. We look forward to connecting with you!

Mutual Fund Analysis and Selection – SURS' Self-Managed Plan, and our 403(b) and 457 Deferred Comp supplemental retirement savings plans, and perhaps your own Individual Retirement Accounts, encourage participants to evaluate and select investment choices from a daunting list of available alternatives. How to choose? This series will discuss what is an annuity, a mutual fund, and how to evaluate, compare and choose appropriate professionally-managed assets. This 4-week series will be held on Fridays, October 31 – November 21, noon to 1pm at Bone Student Center, 3rd Floor East Lounge.

These will be presented by Cathy Hempstead, Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor, Chartered Mutual Fund Counselor, and Retirement Consultant with ISU's Human Resources department. Space is limited. Please e-mail Cathy (chempst@ilstu.edu) to reserve your space.
