QUICK QUOTE

"Everyone has a talent. It's simply a question of good discipline, of the good fortune to have an education that meshes with that talent, and a lot of luck."
-- Twyla Tharp

FRIVOLOUS FACT

Benjamin Franklin was the first American to propose Daylight Saving Time in 1784. However, it wasn't fully implemented in the U.S. until after the Second World War.

SPRING INTO WELLNESS

~ Erin Link, Health Promotion and Wellness

Ready...Set...Walk!

Lace up your sneakers and join Health Promotion and Wellness and the American Heart Association to celebrate National Walking Day on Wednesday, April 2 on the Quad, by the Old Main Bell from Noon to 1:30 p.m. The first 100 walkers to complete a loop of the inner Quad will receive a free sandwich from Subway. Warm up with Campus Recreation at 12:05 and walk a loop with Reggie at 12:10. However, feel free to stop by whenever your schedule allows. Visit with local and campus health organizations, get wellness information, free blood pressure checks, take a photo in the Your Redbird Life photo booth, enter to win prizes, and more! This is a free event open to the Illinois State University and Bloomington/Normal community.

Celebrate healthy eating April 25

Mark your calendars to attend Nutri-Fest on Friday, April 25 from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Circus Room of the Bone Student Center. Sponsored by Campus Dining and Health Promotion and Wellness, Nutri-Fest features food samples, cooking demonstrations, and wellness information from campus and local organizations. New this year: learn about local food initiatives from the Bloomington Farmer's Market and Green Top Grocery. This is a free event open to the entire campus community.

GAMMA PHI CIRCUS SPRING SHOWS

~ Deb Wylie, Conference Services

Illinois State University's Gamma Phi Circus will host its 2014 Spring Shows in Redbird Arena with performances at 7 p.m. Friday, April 11, and at 1 p.m. and 7 p.m. Saturday, April 12.

All tickets are reserved seating, with prices starting at $12 for adults, $10 for students, senior citizens and military, $8 for children ages 5 through 12, and $2 for children under 5. This year lower bowl seating will be an additional dollar.

Tickets are available at the Braden Box Office, all Ticketmaster outlets, on Ticketmaster.com, by phone at (800) 745-3000, or at the door of Redbird Arena on show days. For ticket sales the days of performances, Redbird Arena Box Office will be open at 4 p.m. Friday, April 11 and from 10:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Saturday, April 12.

More information is available at GammaPhiCircus.IllinoisState.edu.

Before Saturday's 1 p.m. show, there will be a pre-show children's carnival that begins at noon with games and activities for all ages. Admission to the carnival is the matinee ticket. The pre-matinee carnival is sponsored by the Student Alumni Council.

The show is a two-hour performance featuring more than 15 unique acts. Gamma Phi performers will showcase many aerial, acrobatic and gymnastics acts commonly associated with professional circuses. Among these acts are Russian Swing, Wall Trampoline, multi-trapeze, tight wire, unicycles, Teeter Board, German Wheel, clowns and much more. This year's show will have a Chicago theme influenced by Chicago the musical, O'Hare Airport and the Chicago Bulls.

Gamma Phi Circus is the oldest collegiate circus in the United States and is celebrating its 85th birthday this year. Established in 1929, Gamma Phi is a leadership-based organization, dedicated to helping members grow as individuals as well as within the circus family. Circus members are expected to uphold the circus values: commitment, integrity, respect, courage, unity and service. Gamma Phi Circus is a program of the College of Applied Science and Technology at Illinois State University.

Contact Braden Box Office at (309) 438-5444 to arrange an accommodation to fully participate in this event. Please allow sufficient time to make accommodation arrangements.
