NEWS FROM CIVIL SERVICE COUNCIL

Civil Service Council elections

Amanda Smith

Beginning in March the Civil Service Council will be seeking nominations for new council representatives. You may self-nominate or nominate someone within your group.

Keep an eye on the council website for listings of each group, how many seats are open for this election, who is eligible to be nominated, and where to find the form to make your nomination.

As always, you may learn more about the council and our responsibilities to those we represent by visiting CSCouncil.IllinoisState.edu/About.

CAMPUS NEWS

Dining discounts for faculty, staff in February

Jamie Wood

In celebration of Founders Day on February 19, Campus Dining Services will offer faculty and staff discounts at both dining centers every Friday in February.

Visit Watterson Dining Commons or the Marketplace at Linkins Center to enjoy all-you-care-to-eat lunch for $6.50 or dinner for $8, with your ID. The dinner price begins at 4:30 p.m.

View the daily menus at Contact Campus Dining Services at \(309\) 438-8351 with any questions.

Civil Service staff sympathies and congratulations

Jacob DeGeal

Our sincerest sympathy to:

Heather Berrocales, Watterson Dining Commons, whose grandmother Martha Marie Black passed away on November 26, 2014.

Jodi Sullivan, CDS Catering Department, whose grandfather Robert G. Hall, passed away.

Harry Thiel, former journalism professor, died December 19, 2015.

Diane Spurgeon, Campus Dining, whose mother Delores Franzen, died January 9, 2015.

Congratulations to:

Kevin and Carol Pfoff (EAF) on the arrival of their new granddaughter Halynn Elise Iverson on Jan 27, 2015 to Jeff and Natalie Iverson Flanagan.
