ACADEMIC SENATE

January 21, 1974

TO: Academic Senate
FROM: Nick Cetwinski, Co-Chairman
Student Affairs Committee
RE: Information Item

RESOLUTION TO DISSOLVE HOUSING EXTERNAL COMMITTEE

Whereas, as of this academic year the University has no formal relationship with off-campus householders, giving students greater freedom and responsibility to handle their own personal affairs; and

Whereas, there presently exists an effective and credible Married Students Advisory Council to the Housing Office; and

Whereas, the Association of Residence Halls functions with credibility and effectiveness as representative of hall residents; and

Whereas, the primary responsibilities of the Housing Committee are served by the Association of Residence Halls and other representative organizations, hence creating no need for its continuation; and

Whereas, the Housing Committee has recommended its own dissolution;

I therefore propose the following:

1) In the interest of streamlining University governance and omitting duplicate constructive efforts, the Academic Senate hereby dissolve the External Housing Committee.

2) The Academic Senate, through the Internal Standing Student Affairs Committee, shall maintain a relationship with the Association of Residence Halls, so to aid and advise whenever necessary.

I stress the right of the Senate and its internal standing committee to investigate and/or evaluate any occurrence within the University community.
