Surround Sound is a new and exciting vocal ensemble based in Bloomington-Normal, Illinois. Founded in December, 1995 by former ISU musician, Brian Bond, Surround Sound consists of eight singers, and is assisted by a trio of musicians on piano, bass and drums. Every member of the group and its rhythm ensemble is either a current or former student at Illinois State University's School of Music.

The group specializes in the performance of vocal jazz. Their repertoire encompasses a wide variety of jazz styles; from standard swing charts and ballads, to the contemporary styles of today's funk, fusion and Latin music arrangers.

Surround Sound is dedicated to increasing both the awareness and popularity of vocal jazz in Central Illinois. Through its local and regional performances, Surround Sound intends to reach out to enthusiasts of vocal jazz, again focusing their attention to a style that was once very popular. This will also give them an opportunity to introduce vocal jazz to a whole new audience.

For more information about Surround Sound, or to book them for future performances contact Brian Bond @ 828-6885 or marketing manager, Anthony Barton, @ 452-9712.
