About the Artist...

Julia Larson Mattern is Associate Professor of flute at Ball State University, flutist with the Musical Arts Woodwind Quintet, principal flutist of the Muncie Symphony Orchestra, a member of the Russian Festival Orchestra in Indianapolis and a substitute flutist with the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra and Ft. Wayne Philharmonic. She is also on the faculty of the Aria International Summer Music Academy. Dr. Mattern received degrees in flute performance from Michigan State University (B.M.) and the University of Maryland (M.M. and D.M.A) and has performed in masterclasses for Michel Debost, Geoffrey Gilbert, Julius Baker, Trevor Wye, Robert Dick, Toshiko Kohno and Robert Willoughby.

Dr. Mattern has performed with the Lansing (MI) Symphony and Chamber Orchestras, National Chamber Orchestra (Washington, D.C.), National Gallery of Art Orchestra (Washington, D.C.), Prince Georges (MD) Philharmonic, Tupelo (MS) Symphony, Richmond (IN) Symphony, Columbus (IN) Symphony and Marion (IN) Philharmonic. From 1984-89 she was active as a professional musician in the Washington, D.C. area, including performances at the National Gallery of Art, National Portrait Gallery, National Museum for Women in the Arts and the United States Capitol.

An active member of the National Flute Association, Dr. Mattern has performed at NFA conventions in Los Angeles, Kansas City, Orlando, Phoenix, Columbus and Washington, D.C. She is a five-time winner of the NFA Convention Performer's Competition and a winner of the NFA Professional Flute Competition in 1992. As a member of the Musical Arts Woodwind Quintet, Dr. Mattern has also performed at national conventions of the American Society of Composers, Music Educators National Conference, National Association of College Wind and Percussion Instructors, Music Teachers National Association and the International Double Reed Society.
