SUMMER CHOIR

Translation of Christ Lag In Todesbanden - by Johann Kuhnau

- I Sonata - Orchestra
- II Christ lay in death's strong bonds
For our offences given.
He is again arisen
And brings us life from heaven;
Wherefore let us joyful be,
And praise our God thankfully:
So sing we Alleluia, Alleluia.
Women of the Choir with Orchestra
- III Alleluia, Christ is victorious,
The yoke of Satan is rejected,
The might of sin is put away,
Into the grave of Jesus to stay.
Choir and Orchestra
- IV We now live with Jesus Christ
Who has arisen,
To a new and holy order of living,
For he has become today Prince of Peace,
Who once had gone to the grave,
And no more can be seen in the tomb.
Judy Schneider, Soprano
- V Ritornello - Orchestra

VI The proper Easter lamb is he;
Who on the wood of the cross
Gave confirmation for our guilty sins,
And well was given all - this right,
So that nothing belonging to sin
Is believed to belong to God.
Robert McFarland, Tenor

VII Ritornello - Orchestra

VIII Then did the Father show the world
Jesus Christ, his son,
Who would inscribe his life upon it
That to Christ in Death remains but nothing,
So sing we now alleluia,
And cry out Victory.
Charles Stark, Bass

IX Ritornello - Orchestra

X So let us keep this holy feast
With glad and gay rejoicing.
For us the Lord reveals a light,
He is himself the Sunshine.
Lighted by his glowing Grace,
Our radiant hearts are glorified.
The night of sin is over now.
Alleluia.

Choir and Orchestra
