Set II

Marching For Lambs	Arranger - Richard Kent
--------------------	-------------------------

Using a simple English folksong as a base, Mr. Kent has created this attractive arrangement for mixed voices. V-IV is the primary rhythmic pattern and the resulting accent shift gives a contemporary lilt to the strophic setting.

Heaven-Haven	Arnold Freed
--------------	--------------

Arnold Freed is an American composer born in 1926. From 1952-54, Mr. Freed studied with Luigi Dallapiccola in Italy on a Fulbright scholarship. His setting of Heaven-Haven is based on a text by Gerard Hopkins.

Follow Your Saint	Hugh Mullins
-------------------	--------------

Mr. Mullins, Professor of Music Theory and Composition at Los Angeles State College, composed this work in 1961. With respect to both the complete freedom of the rhythmic pattern as well as the harmonic innovations, the work displays a sharp contrast to the style conceived by the 16th Century author and composer Thomas Campion.

Like As The Culver On The Bared Bough	Halsy Stevens
---------------------------------------	---------------

Halsy Stevens, American composer, was born in 1908. Like As The Culver On The Bared Bough was composed in 1954 on a text by Edmund Spencer in the 16th Century.
