PERCUSSION ENSEMBLES AT ILLINOIS STATE UNIVERSITY

Percussion Ensembles at Illinois State University have enjoyed overwhelming approval in both on-campus and off-campus concerts. Due to an ever-increasing influx of outstanding students, the ensembles have developed a large repertory and a high standard of performance.

There are presently four percussion organizations at ISU. The Contemporary Percussion Quintet is made up of the most talented and versatile performers ranging from the freshman to graduate level. This group performs on- and off-campus concerts. The Concert Ensemble consists of ten percussionists and performs the complex compositions requiring larger numbers. The third ensemble, the Repertory Ensemble consists of seven members, most of whom are freshmen. The fourth and newest organization, the Mallet Ensemble, consists of nine keyboard specialists and performs popular and classical literature specially arranged for this media.

With a large inventory of percussion instruments, all ensembles are able to experience and offer to their audiences the complete spectrum of percussion literature.
