Festgesang an die Künstler, Opus 68

Mendelssohn

with Brass Choir

The honor of mankind is entrusted into your hands, O keep it well! With you it is immortal! The holy magic of the arts is part of God's universal plan, which greatly leads us to the ocean of God's great harmony. Rejected by her epoch, unadorned Truth in Poetry will shelter and find a home among the Muses' choir. Whence in the splendor of her glory, rendered more dread by beauty's veiling, She will arise on wings of music and take vengeance with sounds of victory on her tormentor's craven ear. O freest sons of freest Mother, strive ye to reach with firm fixed gaze the radiant seat of loftiest beauty, seek not to vie for other crowns. On thousand-fold entwined courses of richest multiplicity, draw near, embracing all each other, the throne of lofty unity.
