Student Body President's Remarks

Senator Alvarado: To promote politic engagement and encourage civic aware, on November 18, SGA hosted a Reboot Illinois Workshop. We are currently planning our bi-annual Club Milner. We are working with the Academic Affairs Committee on the Final Exam Policy. It will be brought back at the next SGA meeting as an Action Item.

Senator Fazel: Last time, we talked about our smoking policy and that you would make sure everybody knows about it. Has something happened in that area? There are more cigarette butts around the COB.

Senator Alvarado: We sent an email to the whole student body and within that email was a reminder of the policy. In terms of the College of Business, we can look into what steps we need to take. We will do the mapping and signs at the beginning of the next semester.

Senator Ellerton: I was literally one step away from being run down by a bicyclist near Stevenson. I really urge signage to make it safe.

Senator Smudde: I am also concerned about skateboarding and long boarding. I would urge the SGA to look into this.

Senator Holland: I believe that there is already a policy against skateboarding on campus.

Administrators' Remarks

• President Tim Flanagan

President Flanagan: Thanks to those who helped out after the tornado. The Dean of Students Office has been instrumental in relocating a number of students and make accommodations. Thank you to students involved in the relief efforts. It is expected that the legislature will convene on December 3 for the purpose of taking up the pension issue. There has been no bill introduced. We are monitoring the situation very carefully through the presidents and chancellors groups. Last week, I visited with our congressional delegations in Washington, D.C. The trustees met for several days. One of the issues we raised with them was a proposed revision in the trustees governing document that would make it much simpler.

• Provost Sheri Everts

• Vice President of Student Affairs Larry Dietz

• Vice President of Finance and Planning Dan Layzell
